~~Measure TT Argument Against Foster City Transient Occupancy Tax~~

13 Taxation without representation is tyranny! This measure taxes travelers where they do not
3 get to vote.

19 What kind of a people are we? Tax the visitors; tax our guests? Tax the homeless family in a
1 motel?

15 Sacramento should never be allowing this. Foster City raises the tax on its hotels, and other
17 cities raise the tax on your room when you travel. This is turning people against each other;
4 like a tariff war.

15 Why aren't taxes made equal? Don't we get the equal protection promised by the 14th
10 Amendment? This tax is wrong. Don't be tempted. Just say "No".

16 In fact, this measure should not even be allowed on the ballot. The ballot statement is 11 argumentative, a prejudiced question written to make it pass. AB 195 outlawed
16 argumentative and biased statements, but governments still try them anyway.

19 Nothing in the actual law says the City Council really has to spend the tax on parks or the Fire
15 Department, or do anything in particular with the money. The actual law says the money is 15 unrestricted and they can spend it as they please. But the ballot statement might mislead
13 you to think some money is reserved for important uses. It is not.

4 Don't tax a guest!

5 Just vote No on TT

Chair, Libertarian Party of San Mateo County CA
