Rebuttal to Argument Against Measure P
Portola Valley School District

Don't let the lone opponent mislead you. He has his facts wrong and doesn't even live in our community or know our schools. 5

Here is the truth: 4

- Portola Valley School District test scores are above state standards and exceed 9 benchmarks for excellence. Go to CASchoolDashboard.org to read the report. Families 11 move to our community because of our outstanding schools. 9 38
- Measure P prohibits funds from going toward administrator salaries, benefits or 10 pensions. This is clearly outlined in the measure, which you can read at www.pvsd.net/14 parceltax. 1
- Measure P simply renews the existing rate we have been paying since 2013 and includes 14 a modest 3% annual increase to account for cost of living increases. 12
- Portola Valley and Woodside are among the most expensive places to live in the Bay 14 Area. We must remain competitive in order to keep qualified and experienced teachers 13 in our classrooms, as quality teachers are at the heart of a high-quality education. 14 92
- Annual audits and independent citizen oversight have verified that all funds from our 13 current measure have been used as promised. Read the reports here: www.pvsd.net/12 parceltax.
- Measure P has a direct impact on Portola Valley and Woodside students. Without 11 renewal, our schools will lose funding that supports 17% of our teachers. 12
- Seniors will continue to be eligible for an exemption. 9 57

As longtime community leaders in Portola Valley and Woodside, we know that Measure P is 13 necessary. 1

We are proud to live in a community that supports its schools and provides children with an 17 outstanding education. Join us in voting YES on P to protect Portola Valley schools. 12 43
