Rebuttal Argument Jefferson High School District $23.39M Bond Issue: Measure J

How greedy can you get?

5

In 2014 voters approved $133,000,000 in debt to “continue to renovate” and in 2006 they approved $136,900,000 in additional debt to “renovate/upgrade facilities” and “upgrade technology”.

15
11
1

Now they want another $23,390,000 to do the same things all over again???

13

Do schools really need upgrading every four to six years?

10

The ballot argument in 2014 said they were going to “repair and replace leaky roofs” and now they’re to “repair and replace roofs...”. Do your roofs need replacing every 6 years?

16
15

If not, please vote NO on J.

7

Budgets set priorities. Jefferson High School District is saying every educational dollar spent today is going to a higher priority than to "repair...classrooms" and “repair and replace roofs”.

3

Do you agree?

3

Would you take out a 25-30-year loan to buy a personal computer? Nuts, right? But that’s what the District did in 2014. They issued bond debt to purchase technology that is now obsolete.

2

You deserved to know the full truth about measure J.

9

If you value children's health and safety more than funding tax free shelters for bond funds and big banks, then vote NO on Measure J.

14

If you value school maintenance more than making principal and interest payments for 25-30 years, vote NO on Measure J.

10

Remember, financing school projects via bonds, routinely double the cost of the project, just like a home mortgage.
