CITY OF MILLBRAE – Ballot Argument in Favor of Measure N

Start

Protect Millbrae’s local quality of life without raising taxes on residents — vote YES on N to:

Repair potholes and streets in our neighborhoods and major streets.

Maintain neighborhood and downtown police patrols.

Improve recreation programs and city parks.

Help attract new businesses to town.

And enhance services to reduce homelessness at the BART station and downtown.

This will ensure Millbrae residents enjoy a good quality of life with strong property values, and our community is a place where young families want to live and put down roots. Vote YES on N — keep Millbrae a special place to live!

Measure N guarantees accountability:

None of the money raised by the measure would be used for City administrator salaries.

The money cannot be taken by Sacramento. The measure will give Millbrae local control over local funds for local needs.

The measure will require independent citizen oversight, mandatory financial audits, and yearly reports to the community.

Measure N is paid by out-of-town visitors and tourists when they stay in a Millbrae hotel or lodging. Measure N is NOT a tax on your home or property. Millbrae residents who are NOT hotel/lodging guests will NOT be taxed.

Best of all, Measure N is accountable to you —the Millbrae taxpayer—by making sure visitors to our city are paying their fair share for the services we all rely on.

Your YES on N vote invests in maintaining our core community services, such as repairing potholes and streets, maintaining neighborhood police patrols while adding additional Sheriff’s Deputies patrolling downtown, addressing homelessness at our BART station, and maintaining vital infrastructure including storm drains and public parks.

Join a unanimous Mayor and Council, the business community, safety, and civic leaders in voting yes on N. For factual information visit: www.ci.millbrae.ca.us.
